

AN ORDINANCE TO ADOPT
SECTION 12C-1551 OF CHAPTER 15, TITLE 12C
OF THE CODE OF SHEPHERDSTOWN TO ESTABLISH THE PROHIBITED USE OF
AN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS DEVICE, DRIVING WITHOUT HANDHELD FEATURES.

THE SHEPHERDSTOWN TOWN COUNCIL ORDAINS:

Chapter 15 of Title 12C of the Shepherdstown Code is hereby amended by adding Section 12C-1551 entitled “Prohibited Use Of An Electronic Communications Device, Driving Without Handheld Features” to regulate and control the use of an electronic communications device while driving, as such use endangers the safety of others, and to establish civil penalties and guidelines for such violations. Accordingly, there is enacted Section 12C-1551 of Chapter 15 of Title 12C to read as follows:

Section 12C-1551: PROHIBITED USE OF AN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS DEVICE, DRIVING WITHOUT HANDHELD FEATURES.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, a person may not drive or operate a motor vehicle on a public street or highway while:

(1) Texting; or

(2) Using a cell phone or other electronic communications device, unless the use is accomplished by hands-free equipment.

(4) “Engaging in a call” means when a person talks into or listens on an electronic communication device, but shall not include when a person dials or enters a phone number on a pushpad or screen to initiate the call.

(5) “Hands-free electronic communication device” means an electronic communication device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of such electronic communication device, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand or both hands.

(6) “Hands-free equipment” means the internal feature or function of a hands-free electronic communication device or the attachment or addition to a hands-free electronic communication device by which a user may engage in a call or text without the use of either hand or both hands.

(7) “Texting” means manually entering alphanumeric text into, or reading text from, an electronic communication device, and includes, but is not limited to, short message service, e-mailing, instant messaging, a command or request to access a World Wide Web page or engaging in any other form of electronic text retrieval or entry, for present or future communication. For purposes of this section, “texting” does not include the following actions:

(A) Reading, selecting or entering a telephone number, an extension number, or voicemail retrieval codes and commands into an electronic device by the pressing the device in order to initiate or receive a phone call or using voice commands to initiate or receive a telephone call;

(B) Inputting, selecting or reading information on a global positioning system or navigation system; or

(C) Using a device capable of performing multiple functions, including fleet management systems, dispatching devices, smart phones, citizens band radios or music players, for a purpose that is not otherwise prohibited in this section.

(8) “Using a cell phone or other electronic communication device” means holding in a person’s hand or hands an electronic communication device while:

(A) Viewing or transmitting images or data;

(B) Playing games;

(C) Composing, sending, reading, viewing, accessing, browsing, transmitting, saving or retrieving e-mail, text messages or other electronic data; or

(D) Engaging in a call.

(c) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to:

(1) A law-enforcement officer, a firefighter, an emergency medical technician, a paramedic or the operator of an authorized emergency vehicle in the performance of their official duties;

(2) A person using an electronic communication device to report to appropriate authorities a fire, a traffic accident, a serious road hazard, or a medical or hazardous materials emergencies.

(3) The activation or deactivation of hands-free equipment or a function of hands-free equipment.

(d) This section does not supersede any more restrictive provisions for drivers of commercial motor vehicles prescribed by the provisions of chapter seventeen-e of the West Virginia Code or federal law or rule.

(e) Any person who violates the provisions of subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a traffic offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall for a first offense be fined $100; for a second offense be fined $200; and for a third or subsequent offense be fined $300. No court costs or other fees shall be assessed for a violation of subsection (a) of this section.

(f) Driving or operating a motor vehicle on a public street or highway while texting shall be enforced as a primary offense as of October 1, 2012. Driving or operating a motor vehicle on a public street or highway while using a cell phone or other electronic communication device without hands-free equipment shall be enforced as a secondary offense as of October 1, 2012, and as a primary offense as of October 1, 2013 for purposes of citation.

(g) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize seizure of a cell phone or electronic device by any law- enforcement agency.
