Shepherdstown Welcomes You!

Historic Shepherdstown, the oldest town in the state of West Virginia, nestled in the lower Shenandoah Valley - is only 90 minutes from the Washington-Baltimore metropolitan areas but miles away from the stress and rushed lifestyle of the city. Stroll along German Street, filled with more than a dozen fine dining and casual restaurants, and unique locally owned shops. You're sure to find the perfect spot to stay, eat and shop here, and, of course, to see a parade - all uniquely Shepherdstown. Commuters: Marc Train is 3 miles from Shepherdstown
