Lecture @ 7:00 pm

 WVU Medicine

BERKELEY MEDICAL CENTER

COVID-19 Coronavirus Update

We will be broadcasting the lecture on FACEBOOK LIVE from our WVU Medicine East page

Officials and experts at WVU Medicine are working closely with local, state, and federal authorities to monitor the outbreak of the 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

As concerns grow for the spread of respiratory illnesses, it is important to know how to protect yourself and others. Please join Matthew Simmons, MD, with WVU Medicine Infectious Diseases, operated by Berkeley Medical Center, for tips to prevent the spread of respiratory viruses and an in-depth discussion on how to keep you and your family safe during this outbreak.
